Integrating Educational Technology in the Early Childhood Classroom

From tablets and smartphones to laptops, desktops, and smartboards, computer-based learning can be a valuable part of any early childhood classroom. In this webinar, you'll learn:

- How to balance educational technology with other interactive, hands-on experiences in your early childhood education program
- How to implement a three-point checklist to assess the benefits of a blended initiative supported with technology that works best for students
- How Frog Street curriculum solutions and ABCmouse® address essential learning outcomes and deliver powerful results

Don't miss this live webinar and select the date that works best for you!
